What is the duration of the M.S.IET degree program?

The minimum study period for MIET degree program is 12 months and maximum study period is 24 months from the date of Admission Letter.

What happens if I am unable to complete my M.S.IET study within 2 years?

In the event that you are unable to complete your M.S.IET study within the initial 2-year timeframe, you have the option to extend your study for an additional year, subject to the following terms and conditions:

1. Extended Study Fee: If you require more time to complete your M.S.IET program, you will be required to pay an additional tuition fee of USD 600-00 for the period spanning the 25th to the 36th month of your study.
2. Time Limit: It is important to note that if you are unable to finish your studies within 36 months, your association with EIU will be discontinued, and you will no longer be considered an EIU student.

By offering this extension period, we aim to provide students with a reasonable opportunity to complete their studies. However, it is crucial to adhere to the designated time frame to ensure a successful and timely completion of your M.S.IET program.

Where is the M.S.IET classes conducted?

All the EIU-Paris M.S.IET classes will be conducted in Bangkok, Thailand

How many trips to Bangkok are required for M.S.IET study, and how long is each trip?

For M.S.IET students, there are three mandatory TIMES Residential Study sessions held in Bangkok, Thailand. Each Residential Study session spans over 6 days and involves intensive tutorial seminars. The classes will be conducted daily from 8:30 am to 5:30 pm.

In summary, M.S.IET students are expected to make three trips to Bangkok, with each trip lasting for 6 days. These sessions offer a concentrated and focused learning experience, allowing students to fully immerse themselves in the program's curriculum and interact with their professors and peers.

After participating in the 6-day intensive M.S.IET Colloquium, will I receive a certificate as proof of attendance?

Certainly! Upon completion of the 6-day intensive tutorial seminar in Bangkok, you will be presented with the TIMES Certificate of Participation. This certificate serves as official documentation to verify your successful attendance at the 6-day seminar within your M.S.IET degree program. It is a testament to your active participation and dedication to furthering your education in the program.

How are assessments and grading conducted for each subject?

Each subject follows a four-part assessment structure, with the grading breakdown as follows:

1. Class attendance and punctuality - 10 marks.
2. Depth and extent of active participation during tutorial seminar - 20 marks.
3. Quiz or short exam during the 2-day tutorial seminar - 30 marks.
4. Take-home assignment or reflective report - 40 marks.

These components collectively contribute to the overall assessment of each subject, allowing for a comprehensive evaluation of your performance, engagement, and understanding of the course material.
